Harvey Hohauser & Associates CEO Appointed to Chair at Global Organization IIC Partners

Detroit, Mich. ---October 16, 2018--- Todd Hohauser, CEO, FEA of Harvey Hohauser & Associates (HH&A) was unanimously elected as Chair of IIC Partners, during the organization’s annual meeting in Stockholm.

Hohauser, who leads a national executive search firm with a 30+ year history of providing targeted executive recruiting and strategy services to place successful leaders, will serve a three-year term. This appointment puts the Detroit-based firm at the forefront of global recruitment, addressing the key challenge businesses are facing in today’s marketplace - securing top talent.

Todd Hohauser has taken an active role in IIC Partners since joining in 2006. Passionate and committed to the group, Hohauser continues to see the value of IIC Partners every day, from both a business and personal perspective. Since being involved with the organization, he has referred executive search assignments to China, Germany, Japan, Italy, Brazil, Australia and Belgium, enabling his local clients to be represented globally by firms that hold the same values and high standards as HH&A.

“It is an honor to be at the helm of IIC Partners and to work with the collective group to position our industry and partners in a way that will address the challenges of global executive placement”, says IIC Chair Hohauser. “Together we bring an advantage to the companies we serve through our collective knowledge of the global marketplace and best practices.
